EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-11, drawn to method of detecting leaks, classified in class 204, subclass 401.
 - II. Claims 12-51, drawn to method of pumping a sealed reference chamber, classified in class 205, subclass 784.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination II can be utilized without any leak detection provided by subcombination I. Similarly, subcombination I can be utilized for a different method of pumping than subcombination II. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

3. During a telephone conversation with Jeffry Nelson on 9-10-2007 a provisional election was made with the right to traverse to prosecute the invention of group I, claims 1-11.

4. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jeffry Nelson on 9-11-2007.

The application has been amended as follows: Claims 12-51 were canceled.

5. The following changes to the drawings have been approved by the examiner and agreed upon by applicant: Figures 5 and 6 should be labeled as PRIOR ART. In order to avoid abandonment of the application, applicant must make these above agreed upon drawing changes.

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not disclose nor render obvious all the cumulative limitations of claim 1 with particular attention to the step of reducing the current, comparing the reduced DC pumping current to a predetermined current limit and comparing the elapsed time to a second predetermined time limit to detect a leakage in a sealed internal reference chamber. The closest prior art to the instant invention is Kaneko et al (Solid State Ionics, 22(2-3), 1987), which taught a couple of means for determining leakage in a sealed internal reference chamber. However, Kaneko either stopped pumping and measured the EMF to determined oxygen leakage (fig. 5) or utilized steady state leakage EMF measurements at small constant currents to determine the leakage rate (fig. 7). None of these techniques reads or renders obvious the claimed instant invention use of comparing a reduced pumping current to a predetermined current limit and comparing an elapsed time to a second predetermined time limit.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
